FAMILIES WANT TO KNOW...

How can I help my child cope with challenges and become a problem solver?

Will my child be kind to others?

Will my child have friends?

RESEARCH HAS SHOWN... that children need social and emotional skills to be successful in the future*

WHAT ARE SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL SKILLS

Social and Emotional Skills include the ability to:
- develop friendships
- share and take turns
- follow directions
- use problem-solving skills
- understand routines
- demonstrate self-control
- identify and manage emotions

Pyramid Model practices support children to have better social skills and less challenging behavior

A growing number of NH COMMUNITIES & CLASSROOMS are using THE PYRAMID MODEL to support children’s social and emotional development

iSocial Improving Social-emotional Outcomes through Complementary Infrastructure and Leadership

The contents of this flyer were developed by the NH Pyramid Model State Leadership Team in collaboration with funding from the US Department of Education, H323A170029. However the contents do not necessarily represent the policy of the US Department of Education and you should not assume endorsement by the Federal Government. Project Officer, Sunyoung Ahn.

What is the Pyramid Model?

The Pyramid Model supports the social and emotional development of children by:

- Promoting learning by building positive relationships among children, families and early childhood professionals
- Understanding the need to develop behavior expectations and how to provide social skills support
- Creating an environment where every child feels good about coming to school
- Providing children individual support as needed

What is gained by using the Pyramid Model?

Families
- Receive information on how to promote social & emotional skills
- Receive support for preventing and addressing challenging behavior
- Team with teachers to help children learn and grow
- Increase their social and emotional skills
- Improve their kindergarten readiness

Children
- Have information and resources to support families
- Are effective in helping children learn social and emotional skills
- Have enhanced skills for responding to challenging behaviors

Professionals
- Have information and resources to support families
- Are effective in helping children learn social and emotional skills
- Have enhanced skills for responding to challenging behaviors

Where can I learn more?

www.pyramidmodel.org www.challengingbehavior.org
Facebook: NH Pyramid Model
https://sites.google.com/education.nh.gov/isocial/home